City Government

A Council-Manager form of Government serves Hannibal citizens. As Chief Executive Officer of Hannibal, the Mayor is an active, voting member of the City Council. Hannibal is divided into six wards; each having one elected Council Member; and the Mayor is elected at-large. Hannibal elected officials serve three-year staggered terms. The City Manager reports to the Mayor and City Council. The City Manager oversees daily operations of the city and directs municipal departments and operations. The City Council meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. at City Hall, 320 Broadway. Hannibal residents may register to vote at the County Collector's office in the Hannibal courthouse or the Marion County Clerk's office in the Palmyra courthouse. Ralls County residents may register at the courthouse in New London. To be eligible to vote in municipal elections, voters must be registered by the fourth Wednesday prior to the election. For more information on Hannibal government, visit www.hannibal-mo.gov or call city hall at 573-221-0111.

Hannibal places an emphasis on infrastructure upgrades, and is in-midst of a $6.3 million comprehensive road improvement program. The Community PRIDE Project is expediting the renovation of older neighborhoods, creating a new inventory of modern housing choices in Hannibal. A new Visitors Center is slated for construction in 2019, as well as a multi-million dollar renovation of the Hannibal Riverfront. The city prioritizes a healthy business environment, modern infrastructure, quality neighborhoods and homes, fantastic park amenities, and a welcoming tourism environment.

Hannibal's Heritage & Tourism

Tom & Becky

For more than 55 years, Hannibal's Tom and Becky have been Hannibal's most recognized ambassadors. Each year, seventh grade students residing in Hannibal's school district are invited to participate. Following a selection process comprised of speeches, tests, interviews, and observation of interaction with tourists, the field is narrowed to five Toms and five Beckys. On the Fourth of July, the "official" Tom and Becky are announced. Although all ten finalists make appearances year-round, the "official" couple travels throughout the United States to represent America's Hometown.

Founded in 1819 by Moses Bates, the town of Hannibal soon flourished as a dock for steamboats, flatboats and packet steamers traveling the upper Mississippi. By 1845, Hannibal had achieved city status, and by 1860, the population had more than doubled, making it the second largest city and the third leading commercial center in Missouri. Today tourism is Hannibal's top industry.

Hannibal's most famous resident was Samuel Langhorne Clemens, known worldwide by his pen name, Mark Twain. At the age of four, Sam's family moved to Hannibal from his birthplace in Florida, Missouri, about 30 miles southwest of Hannibal. Many of the popular characters featured in the Adventures of Tom Sawyer and the Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, as well as countless other beloved works are based on people Sam knew while growing up in Hannibal.

Year after year people from across the world enjoy visiting Hannibal. The busy town in Mark Twain's stories still charms guests as they visit the many tourist attractions and historic landmarks Hannibal has to offer. As they walk through the historic downtown district, sightseers can enjoy the Mark Twain Boyhood Home and Museum properties, specialty shops, craft boutiques, art galleries, riverboat cruises, live theater and beautiful parks. While in Hannibal, visitors can also enjoy cave tours, trolley rides, family-oriented entertainment and dining options for all tastes.

"Year after year people from across the world enjoy visiting Hannibal."

Hannibal celebrates its heritage with vibrant festivals & events held throughout the year. One of the largest Hannibal festivals is National Tom Sawyer Days, held over the Fourth of July holiday. This celebration includes events inspired by some of Mark Twain's most beloved stories, including the National fence-painting competition, a grand parade, the coveted Tom & Becky contest, a fireworks spectacular - always held on the fourth - and a frog-jumping contest. Other annual events in Hannibal include the Chocolate Extravaganza, Great Girlfriend Getaway, Twain on Main Festival, the Big River Steampunk Festival, Autumn Historic Folklife Festival, Hannibal's Haunts, Tricks & Treats, and the Victorian Festival of Christmas. For additional information to "Write Your Own Story", please go to VisitHannibal.com or call the Hannibal Visitor's and Convention Bureau at 573-221-2477.

The Lighthouse

Located on Cardiff Hill, the lighthouse was first dedicated in 1935 in celebration of the 100th Anniversary of Mark Twain's birth. The light was first turned on by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The lighthouse was renovated and rededicated in 1963 by President John F. Kennedy, and again in 1994 by President Bill Clinton. It was most recently renovated in 2019 for Hannibal's Bicentennial Celebration.

Hannibal's unique mix of natural resources sets the stage for multiple recreational opportunities. With the Mississippi River, a vast parks system, sports leagues, youth activities, bicycle clubs and much more, it's easy to maintain an active lifestyle in Hannibal. Hannibal's Parks and Recreation Department contributes to the growth of individuals and the community by insuring that quality leisure activities are available for residents and visitors. Parks and Recreation maintains more than 25 named parks – consisting of almost 600 total acres - including two dog parks, a marina, an historic lighthouse, aquatic center, small neighborhood parks and a nature preserve that protects endangered bats. The three most popular parks in Hannibal are Riverview Park, Sodalis Nature Preserve and Huckleberry Park.

Award-winning trails connect the park to the historic downtown area along the Mississippi River, and you'll also find several picnic areas, playgrounds and the famous Mark Twain statue.

Huckleberry Park, approximately 60 acres, includes a skate/ramp park, disc golf course, tennis courts, ball diamond, playgrounds, racquetball courts, picnic areas and a pond.

HAHE meets regularly, sends out a monthly newsletter and organizes field trips and social events throughout the school year. Transportation

Thanks to its location at the intersection of US Hwy 61 and US Hwy 36/I-72, along with state highways 79 and 168, Hannibal is one of Northeast Missouri's busiest transportation hubs. The Hwy 61/36/I-72 single-point interchange in Hannibal is now the intersection of two great four lane, multi-state commerce and transportation corridors – The "Avenue of the Saints" which is 560 miles from St. Louis, MO to St. Paul, MN and the "Chicago-Kansas City Expressway" which is 528 miles and designated route 110 in both states. Regionally, this means that a population base of over 136,000 people live, work and shop within a 30-mile radius of Hannibal and travel on modern four-lane expressways and interstate highways.

The Hannibal Regional Airport (HAE) lies on the city's west border just north of US HWY 36 at the Shinn Lane/CR 425 diamond interchange. Also known as William P. Lear Field, Lear was a native of Hannibal and held more than 150 patents, including the Lear Jet, this modern general aviation airport boasts a 4,400 foot concrete runway with adjacent taxiway. In 2012, construction of a new terminal building was completed which includes a conference room and pilot courtesy lounge and other amenities. Plans are currently underway for a runway expansion to 5,500 feet. Private and corporate aircraft including jets take advantage of the airports 24/7 availability of self-service Avgas and Jet-A fuels along with an FBO providing repair and maintenance, flight instruction, seasonal skydiving and glider activities. The airport is also served by an AWOS weather reporting system as well as LPV (WAAS) approaches and an off-site Enterprise Car Rental office.

Just 30 minutes away, Quincy Regional Airport (UIN) provides daily commercial flights connections to Chicago O'Hara International Airport (ORD) via SkyWest (www.United.com) on a 50 passenger CRJ-200 Jet. St. Louis Lambert International Airport (STL) is only a 90 minute drive from Hannibal via non-stop, four lane US61 and I-70.

Amtrak provides daily passenger service to and from Chicago at its station in Quincy, IL just 22 minutes from Hannibal via four lane highways.

In addition, commercial bus service is provided to Hannibal through Burlington Trailways, providing bus services to St. Louis, MO and to Burlington, IA. Hannibal is also served by barge traffic on the Mississippi River and by two freight railroad lines, the Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railway and the Norfolk Southern Railway.

Hannibal's Aviation Connection with William P. Lear

In 2003, the Hannibal Airport was dedicated as William P. Lear Field. Lear, who was born in Hannibal, held more than 150 patents. His most notable patent was that of the Lear jet, which made air travel affordable for the general aviator.

The Arts

The arts are a part of the fabric of our community. Hannibal is home to numerous arts organizations, community arts programs, special events, festivals, galleries, art-related businesses and creatives of all kinds which enhances the quality of life and engages the community. There are year-round opportunities to participate in the arts.

Arts hub. The Hannibal Arts Council has sponsored community arts programs since 1976. The Hannibal Arts Council implements its own programs and supports all arts opportunities in Hannibal. What started as a small community arts organization is now recognized statewide as an example of the arts playing a pivotal role in a community's economic, tourism and business development while also enriching the lives of its citizens. Hannibal is also the headquarters of the Missouri Association of Community Arts Agencies, a statewide organization providing services to arts agencies across the state.

The arts mean business. Hannibal recently joined 341 diverse community and regions across the country to participate in The Arts & Economic Prosperity 5 (AEP5) study conducted nationally. The study tracked Hannibal's nonprofit arts and culture industry and showed $5.09 million in annual economic activity in the Hannibal area and $506,000 in local and state government revenues. In addition to spending by organizations, the nonprofit arts and culture industry leverages $3.7 million in event-related spending by its audiences.

The arts are everywhere. An abundance of community arts programs are offered throughout the year and the arts can be experienced in churches, galleries, restaurants, school auditoriums, coffee shops, galleries, street corners and performance venues. The Hannibal Concert Association, Hannibal-LaGrange University, Bluff City Theater, Hannibal Public Schools, Hannibal Art Club, Mark Twain Choral and Mark Twain Boyhood Home & Museum are just some organizations who offer programs. Galleries, banks, medical clinics offer opportunities to view/purchase works by local artists and restaurants and bars often feature live music.

The arts get hands-on. There are ample opportunities to get involved as a volunteer, participant, sponsor, board/committee member and active learner. Art organizations, groups, and clubs offer individuals a chance to delve into the arts in all forms. Classes and workshops are offered throughout the community frequently. From photography clubs and writing groups to watercolor workshops and dance classes...Hannibal has it all.

The arts abound. Art-related festivals and special events occur year-round. Below are some examples of just a few of the opportunities:

Continental Cement and Green America Recycling have many impactful environmental, community, and employee initiatives and programs built into our business. In addition to our ongoing efforts in the area of energy efficiency and recycling, we further developed our program in a few key areas with special emphasis on community engagement, improving our Wildlife Habitat Council Projects and through our STEM education partnership at the Hannibal Plant.

All of these initiatives are important to us as we work towards a more sustainable future, for Continental & Green America, its employees, the communities in which we operate and the world in which we live.
